

Old Mission Investment Company Joins Retirement Plan Advisory Group

Enhances Services for Plan Sponsor Clients through Robust Practice Management Platform

Traverse City, Michigan - APRIL 3, 2014

Old Mission Investment Company is pleased to announce its recent affiliation with Retirement Plan Advisory Group (RPAG), the largest independent practice management firm nationally. Old Mission will utilize RPAG's leading-edge retirement plan consulting tools and resources to grow their practice and deliver enhanced value to plan sponsor customers.

"The decision to partner with RPAG stems from our desire to be the best consultants in our local market," comments Keith Olshove, Senior Vice President and Managing Director of Old Mission's Retirement Plan Investment & Consulting Group. "We recognize RPAG's technology, tools, and training as the highest caliber system of its kind, driving results through proven processes utilized by hundreds of 401(k) specialist advisors across the country."

Members of RPAG access a robust technology-driven platform of proprietary tools and services to support qualified and non-qualified plans. Flagship solutions include its proprietary investment ScorecardSM System for fund ranking, B3 Provider Analysis for RFP/Fee benchmarking, Fiduciary Fitness Program for ERISA plan compliance and ongoing training, and the Fiduciary Briefcase for the sponsor's virtual file storage.

"Our holistic approach to retirement plan consulting allows advisors to effectively and efficiently serve the needs of plan sponsors with exceptional precision, care, and consistency," states Nick Della Vedova, President of RPAG. "We are pleased to support serious retirement plan advisors like Old Mission Investment Company."
