
Carey Stibbs Joins The Old Mission Group

Traverse City, Michigan - October 2014

Old Mission Investment Company is pleased to announce the addition of Carey Stibbs to the firm. Carey will join the firm providing administrative support for both investment and trust clients of the group.

Originally from Traverse City she had taken a position at a number of banks, namely Mercantile Bank in Grand Rapids as a commercial loan specialist, moving to The Bank of Holland taking a position as a Credit Analyst, reviewing financial statements for prospective borrowers looking to do business with the bank. Her most recent position was with Lake Michigan Financial Corporation in Grand Rapids, which is the holding company for both the Bank of Holland and the Bank of Northern Michigan.

Carey's background is diverse. She graduated from Aquinas Collage, a private college in Grand Rapids Michigan, receiving a bachelor of science degree in international business, with a minor in economics. Carey had the distinct pleasure of spending time abroad studying international finance at the University of Salamanca in Spain.

Carey will provide clients of Old Mission with administrative support, and will undergo training through the firm as a Wealth Advisor.

Wealth advisory services include investment management services, financial planning, retirement plan services, and trust administration.

Old Mission Investment Company is an SEC registered investment advisory firm, founded in 2006. Old Mission Trust Company is a privately-owned public trust company chartered in 2012. Combined assets under management and administration exceed $300 million, serving both public and private clients.
